Re: United States v. Noel Cuello, et al.,
15 Cr. 219 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

The Government respectfully writes to request a one business day extension, from today to Monday, September 13, of the date by which the Government shall file its response to the Court's order of September 2, 2021 in the above-captioned matter requesting information regarding forfeiture and restitution with respect to defendant Arismendy Cuello and co-defendants.

Since receiving the Court's order, the Government has been working diligently, principally through the Financial Litigation Unit of the Civil Division of the United States Attorney's Office, to (a) compile information and (b) ensure that any appropriate steps that may be taken in the short-term are taken. That effort has resulted in, among other things, the transmission by the Financial Litigation Unit of a stipulation, requested to be so ordered by the Court, on September 7, 2021, a copy of which is enclosed.¹ However, the Government is still waiting on certain information from the Probation Office, which it hopes to receive in the next day or two, and intends to confer further with the Financial Litigation Unit, so as to be in a

¹ As indicated in the cover letter enclosing the stipulation, the proposed stipulation was transmitted to the Court by email to NYSP_Judgments@nysp.uscourts.gov, the email address listed in Rule 1(D) of the Court's individual rules (available at https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/practice_documents/RJS%20Sullivan%20Individual%20Practices%20-%20Judge%20Richard%20J.%20Sullivan.pdf). The Government has since realized that this email address appears to be at an email domain of the Probation Office (nysp.uscourts.gov), not the District Court (nysd.uscourts.gov), and thus may be listed incorrectly.
